Opening Guns

First salvo this month - the list of games that are NOT in this issue for various reasons:

1980 KW - Winter '03/Spring '04 - orders in for all.

1981 N - Winter '02/Spring '03 - orders in for all except E.

1981 AQ - Spring '02 - orders in for all except G (POSTAL STRIKE).

1981 ?? - Spring '01 - orders in for all except E.

1980 Icv (Youngstown IV) - Fall '01 - all in except In, It.

1981 Erm22 (Woolworth I) - Fall 02 - all in 1981 Igp09 (Mercator III) - deadline isn't until August 12th...

KM 8002 - Turn 4 Parl. - all in except Carter, Monaghan (POSTAL STRIKE)

POSTAL STRIKE games are delayed indefinitely. All others have deadlines set as usual in this issue. (NOTE: I will be VERY hesitant to grant a separation in a delayed game. The delay should have given you time to make up adequate contingent orders...)

Second - obviously this is an itty-bitty issue. That's because I'm leaving a full day earlier than anticipated.

ALL the press has been saved, together with several articles written but not yet typed up. I'd like to put out a mid-month JIHAD of 12 pages or so - since I'd be doing a PAX anyway at that time. I'll stop just short of promising an issue 16 $\frac{1}{2}$ , but I certainly don't intend to count this issue alone as an issue off of anyone's sub.

Third - you may ask, "Why did I bother?"

The answer is easy enough - my responsibility to players as a games-master (and hopefully a first-class one) dictates that I keep things going as expeditiously as possible while keeping the play fair. Thus, even if I couldn't put anything else out in this case, the games must go on.

Excuse my red face, please...

*****

An Editorial or Two

During my typing time last month, I received a phone call from Al Pearson of Just Among Friends fame. Al wound up as the bearer of "bad tidings" (he thought I knew already).

Somebody had mailed Al a letter, purportedly from Tim Bates, saying that Marion Bates of Plague Times had died. At the time, we both thought it was genuine - though we also thought it funny that I'd heard nothing - and it wasn't until a few days later that we established the letter was a fake.

I have just three things to say to the demented soul that wrote this - first, if you thought you were being funny, you are tragically mistaken; second, stay away from me, because I will not be responsible for my actions. should I see you; and third, if you sub to this zine, you'd best hope I don't find out who you are. I have generally maintained a low profile, avoiding feuds and the like, but I won't hesitate to treat you like the dirt you are in these pages or anywhere else. You've caused too many good people too much grief to get away with your actions - and if I have my say, you won't get away after all.

I hope you enjoyed yourself.

EDITORIAL NO. 2 - On second thought, I'll change this from an editorial to a plug. Any objections...I didn't think so...Metro Detroit Gamers will be running their WinterCon 10 Gamefest at Cobo Hall in downtown Detroit on the weekend of 20-22 November. This will be the largest facility ever used for a gaming convention, and should be your chance to see the site of Origins '83 as well. FURTHERMORE - if you want to get into the Dip (see p 2)

Remember that KNIGHTS CANNOT BE BUILT.

Deadline for Winter 5001/Spring 5002 orders (NOTE: I will certainly consider separation requests) is 10:30 p.m. EDT on Saturday, August 23, 1981.

GM Interpretation - Rule P1 prevents pieces from occupying spaces which other players' units also occupy; I do NOT feel that this bars a piece from so "joining" a neutral unit in a space.

MDG Con from p. 1 -- tournament, at least you'll know the GM. Me. I'm doing my best to push the Dippy tournament (which will be 2 rounds, both on Saturday) because we haven't had such a good show the last two times out. WinterCon attendees also will find a JIHAD subscriber's party (again) and my almost-legendary end-of-the-con Nuclear War fracas. If you'd like full details on the Con, let me know and I'll make sure you get a flyer sent to your door when they're published.

GM Notes - Advance after combat MUST be ordered for each combat, or I won't do it. Don - the order of a game turn here is IDENTICAL to FTF play...i.e. diplomacy AFTER campaigning, and reinforcements come on AFTER EVERYTHING else. This will explain your funny results.

Game Review: Car Wars

(Steve Jackson Games, Box 18805, Austin, TX 78760; cost $3.50 ppd.)

Long live the micro game (oops...that should be micro-SIZED game; MicroGame is a trademark of another, unnamed company...)!

Just as I was beginning to lose faith in the genre, due to a high
 "turkey percentage" in the recent past, I ran into Mayfair Games' line of products (mentioned in last month's JIHAD). But wonders never cease - my newly-restored faith has been escalated to advocacy again, thanks to Car Wars.

Car Wars is a quintessentially violent game of car-to-car combat on the open road and in the arena. All the nasty things you've ever wanted to do to that s.o.b. on the freeway are possible, and more. Design your own car, and equip it to your heart's content - machineguns, mine droppers, body armor, turrets, paint sprayers, anti-tank guns, lasers - whatever you want (and can afford). Then prepare yourself for thirty to ninety minutes of mayhem.

The game uses a brilliantly-designed movement system, combining the regularity of movement found on a gridded board or map with the freedom of action found in miniatures play. In addition, movement is combined sequential/simultaneous, with players moving in staggered phases according to speeds. It's the closest thing to si-move without plotting.

Car Wars also has a fairly well-laid out set of campaign rules, allowing players to increase the skills, prestige and wealth of characters in a manner reminiscent of RPGs. (As for my feelings about the campaign rules - well, I've already constructed an arena and a campaign scenario.)

In summary, Car Wars is a very flexible, very playable game with an almost irresistible theme (if you've ever driven a car, that is). Bring your scissors - like all SJ games, you'll have to do some cutting - and prepare to get your $3 worth. And then some.

1980 IF Spring Fall Winter Summer Winter, 1904
(separated seasons...get it?)

England (Dan Wilson; replaces Denfeld): Remove f nat - has f NTH, f EDI.

France (Alan Dickinson): Even - has f MID, a BUR, a PAR, a PIC, f LPL, a YOR, f LON.

Germany (Keith Mercer): Build a KIE - has a MUN, a RUH, a BEL, a HOL, f DEN.

Italy (John Daly): Even - has a TYO, a TRI, a BUD, f ALB, a SER, f ION, f TUN, f ADR.

Russia (Roy Henricks): Build f stp(nc) (England owns StP), a SEV - has a WAR, a RUM, a FIN, f NWY. Playing one short.

Turkey (Al Pearson): Even - has a GAL, f GRE, f AEG, a BUL, f EAS.

A question was raised concerning my use of the term "without valid orders" in the Russian adjudication last Fall. Basically, this usage was a compromise on my part. Roy screwed up his conditionals by failing to include a case for an otb retreat...so the units were not "unordered" (they each had at least three orders!), but printing the total set of conditionals - the orders given - didn't make sense either. "Without valid orders" seems to cover this case best.

Deadline for Spring 1905 orders is 10:30 p.m. EDT on Thursday, August 27, 1981.

Looking at Next Issue

Keep looking. You might see it sooner than you'd think.

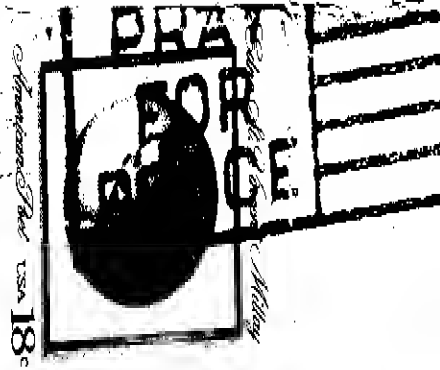

At least all the games will be straight once again, and so will the schedule. (We live in hope).

It's 3:30 in the morning now, and I leave town at 5, so I'm glad this issue's up to this point now. I'll have fun - hope you'll do the same - and keep those cards and letters coming, folks...

Au revoir -
